

Private Law 92-5

AN ACT

For the relief of Marion Owen.

June 30, 1971
[H. R. 2047]

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That, on such terms as he deems just, the Postmaster General is hereby authorized to compromise, release or discharge in whole or in part, the liability of Marion Owen, postmaster of the post office at East Saint Louis, Illinois, to the United States for the loss resulting from the burglary at the Lansdowne Station of the East Saint Louis Post Office on April 1, 1967.

Marion Owen.

Approved June 30, 1971.

Private Law 92-6

AN ACT

For the relief of Commander Albert G. Berry, Junior.

June 30, 1971
[H. R. 2132]

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the Secretary of the Treasury is authorized and directed to pay, out of any money in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated, to Commander Albert G. Berry, Junior, United States Naval Reserve, retired, of Coronado, California, the sum certified to him by the Comptroller General of the United States pursuant to section 2 of this Act. The payment of such sum to the said Commander Albert G. Berry, Junior, shall be in full settlement of all of his claims against the United States for loss of active duty pay and allowances during the period beginning February 25, 1941, and ending January 31, 1947, arising from failure to credit him (for longevity purposes) with service as a midshipman at the United States Naval Academy.

Comdr. Albert G.
Berry, Jr.

SEC. 2. The Comptroller General of the United States shall, within ninety days after the date of enactment of this Act, certify to the Secretary of the Treasury the difference between the amount of active duty pay and allowances received by the said Commander Albert G. Berry, Junior, from the United States during the period specified in the first section of this Act and the amount of such pay and allowances to which he would have been entitled during such period had he correctly been credited (for longevity purposes) with his service as a midshipman at the United States Naval Academy.

Approved June 30, 1971.
